Happy Mother's Day

You never grow big enough not to respect and love your mother. Jesus stopped dying to respect His mother, "Son take care of your mother, mother take care of your son" (Jn 19:26-27). The commandment God gave and associates it with promise is, "if you respect and love your father and mother, you will live long" (Ex 20:21).

Thank you our beloved mothers both the living and those who have transitioned to eternal life. Thank you for the so many ways you inspire the world to be a better place. Thank you for all the pains you endured to show us love. For many times we rendered heartbreak in place of love, we are sorry. We as a church community acknowledge our ingratitude and ask for your forgiveness.

For those grieving the loss of their mothers, be consoled that they are still watching over us from their heavenly home where we hope to meet with them again. May all our mothers both biological and spiritual remain evermore blessed.

An Hour of free Fit-Spiration by Anna Carabetta

We are excited to announce that Anna Carabetta will be giving a talk on health and fitness once a month starting

on Friday May 24, 2024
at Holy Angels Campus
Starting 6:00 pm

Depending on attendance, we may increase to twice a month. The talk will focus on the importance of daily fitness and nutrition and will serve as an introduction to learning how to incorporate these practices into our daily lives. The talk will be led by a knowledgeable fitness & nutrition specialist who will provide valuable information and tips for maintaining a healthy lifestyle. Whether you're a beginner or have been on a fitness journey for some time this talk will provide valuable insights and inspiration. There will be an introduction, a discussion on nutrition, demonstration of exercises and we will have social interaction. It will be a great evening to learn more about prioritizing fitness and nutrition in our daily lifestyles. It's also an opportunity to connect with others who share an interest in health and wellness. We hope to see you all there and look forward to an informative and inspirational evening of integration of mind, body and spirit.
