Regarding the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, December 9, 2024.

From Archbishop Christopher J. Coyne

A recent communication from the Vatican's Dicastery for Legislative Texts has offered a ruling regarding whether Catholics in the United States must still attend Mass on holy days of obligation when they are transferred to Mondays or Saturdays, correcting a long-standing practice in the U.S. Church. The Dicastery stated that according to Canon Law, all of the feasts in question "are always days of obligation ... even when the aforementioned transfer of the feast occurs."

This ruling is contrary to the complementary norms of the USCCB which have been in effect for a number of years, namely that when certain feast days fall on a Saturday or Monday, the obligation to attend Mass on that day is "abrogated."

Moving forward, the Conference and the Archdiocese of Hartford will obviously adjust its norms and its liturgical calendar to follow the instruction from the Dicastery. However, since many parishes and families already have in place the schedules for Advent and Christmas and given the short notice of this ruling, as Archbishop of the Archdiocese of Hartford, I grant a dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass on the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception to all the faithful present in the Archdiocese of Hartford on December 9 of this year.

That having been said, I strongly urge all Catholics to attend Mass on that day to honor the Blessed Mother and her Immaculate Conception and to see their attendance at Mass as a privilege, a privilege to join in the liturgies of the Church on such a beautiful day of celebration. Each of us has freely taken on the discipline of the church in matters of belief and practice, one of which is the duty to celebrate Mass on particular Solemnities of the Church. I hope that all of us do so because we want to and not just because we are "obligated."

News from the Archdiocese of Hartford · December 7 - 13, 2024

WHAT ARE YOU GRATEFUL FOR?

Toni Ann LaMattina, principal at St. Mary-St. Michael School in Derby, is most grateful for her new position, leading the educators and students in pre-kindergarten through eighth grade at the Catholic school.

Founded in 1885, the school has a long and proud history of providing an exceptional education to all who enter through its doors. It prepares students for a lifetime of learning centered on Catholic Social Teaching.

And it all begins with gratitude to God, with students learning to thank their heavenly Father for all that they are, have been given, and may become. And what better time to reflect on their appreciation than during this time of Thanksgiving?

Recently, students in Tara Petrino's fourth-grade class answered the question "What are you grateful for?" They crafted paper pumpkins with key phrases such as "my life," "a loving family" and "a home to keep me safe."

Brianna Sawicki's third-grade class created handprint art and penciled in key words such as "Jesus" and "Easter," along with "cousins" and "dogs." LaMattina even coached an eighth-grade class on how to roast a turkey.

But the essays from the fourth graders were the most revealing exercise because students went beyond the "what" to the "why."

Iyanna Zebrowski wrote, "I am grateful for my family because they make me feel loved all day," and "I am grateful for my home because it's warm and quiet."

In addition to citing her family, Hanna Tran wrote, "I am also grateful to God because he gave me the things that I love." And she is grateful for school "because I can be goofy and learn there."

Brielle Louis Jacques recognized her peers. "I am grateful for my best friend Laila. She makes me laugh every day at school and outside school," she wrote. And "I am grateful for my brother. He is caring and loving to me."

Morgan Millard shared her feelings, writing, "God makes me feel safe and happy. My mom and dad can make me feel happy when I feel sad."

Scott Weller was alternatively serious and whimsical, writing, "I am grateful for God because he's amazing. I am also grateful for my good family and my two guinea pigs because they cheer me up and are funny. Last but not least, I am grateful for this free country and its strong military."

Olivier Bercy revealed his appreciation and humility. "I am grateful for my first father, God. He is the reason why I am here every day," Olivier wrote. "I am grateful for free will because free will is the freedom to decide when and how to act. I am grateful for my school because without it, I would not be smart."
